

BRITISH VALUES STATEMENT

At Moretonhampstead Primary School, we value the diversity of backgrounds of all pupils, families and wider school community. Our curriculum takes a global approach to learning by introducing themes from the perspective of other people in other countries.

The Department for Education states that there is a need:

“To create and enforce a clear and rigorous expectation on all schools to promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs”.

The Department for Education defines British Values as follows:

- Respect for democracy and support or participation in the democratic process
- Respect for the basis on which the law is made and applies in England
- Support for equality of opportunity for all
- Support and respect for the liberties of all within the law
- Respect for and tolerance of different faiths and religious and other beliefs

Our school reflects British values in all that we do. We aim to nurture our children on their journey through life so they can grow into safe, caring, democratic, responsible and tolerant adults who make a positive difference to British society and to the world. We encourage our children to be creative, unique, open-minded and independent individuals, respectful of themselves and of others in our school, our local community and the wider world.

At Moretonhampstead, we actively promote British values in the following ways:

DEMOCRACY

- All children are encouraged to debate topics of interest, express their views and make a meaningful contribution to the running of the school on matters that directly involve pupils. Children also have the opportunity to have their voices heard through pupil questionnaires and pupil surveys.
- The principle of democracy is explored in the curriculum in a 3 weekly cycle of dedicated PSHE lessons as well as during assemblies and theme days. Members of the School Council work hard to promote tolerance and understanding through school events and the many fund-raising opportunities that form a large part of what we do.
- Our school behaviour policy involves rewards which the pupils have discussed and helped shaped such as ‘Golden Circles’ and Housepoint display. Members of the School Council select recipients for weekly ‘Marvellous Manners’ Awards.
- Moretonhampstead pupils have had active involvement in the selection processes of new teaching staff.
- A suggestion box is available for children and adults.

RULE OF LAW

- School rules and expectations are clear, fair and regularly promoted. Children help set rules and are consulted, such as recent School Council involvement in establishing rules which outline our expectations, 'The Moretonhampstead Way'.
- Pupils are always helped to distinguish right from wrong, in the classroom, during assemblies and on the playground.
- Pupils are encouraged to respect the law and has enjoyed visits from authorities such as the Police and Fire Service to help reinforce this message.
- The Behaviour and Anti-Bullying policies set out a zero tolerance baseline for any form of aggression, abuse or violence, which extends to pupils, staff and parents and carers.

INDIVIDUAL LIBERTY

- Within school, pupils are actively encouraged, and given the freedom to make choices, knowing that they are in a safe and supportive environment. eg. by signing up for extra-curricular clubs.
- Workshops for all pupils have reinforced the message for our children that they are 'strong, safe and free'.
- Pupils are supported to develop their self-knowledge, self-esteem and self-confidence.
- Pupils are encouraged to take responsibility for their behaviour and our pastoral support reinforces the importance of making the 'right choices'.
- Pupils are encouraged to know, understand and exercise their rights and personal freedoms and are advised how to exercise these safely, for example through our e-safety teaching and PSHE lessons.
- Vulnerable pupils are protected and stereotypes challenged. A strong anti-bullying culture is embedded in the school and any form of bullying is challenged and addressed. The school also operates a robust system of logging incidents.
- Pupils have key roles and responsibilities in school e.g. Playground Buddies

MUTUAL RESPECT AND TOLERANCE OF THOSE WITH DIFFERENT FAITHS AND BELIEFS

- Respect is one of the core values of our school. The pupils know and understand that it is expected that respect is shown to everyone; adults and children.
- Pupils are helped to acquire an understanding of, and respect for, their own and other cultures and ways of life.
- Staff and pupils are encouraged to challenge prejudicial or discriminatory behaviour.
- Through the PSHE and RE curriculums pupils are encouraged to discuss and respect differences between people, such as differences of faith, ethnicity, disability, gender or sexuality and differences of family situations. We study all major religions are studied and respected. the chance to reflect on our core values and British values.
- Staff all have a secure knowledge of the Prevent Duty and our responsibilities within this.
